

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## A NOTE

"MYSELF UND GOTT"

THE COMPLETE POEM PUBLISHED FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THIS COUNTRY

THE now famous poem which was published in the HERALD some few months ago, and which was recited by Captain Coghlan during his famous speech, was written under peculiar circumstances in Montreal in October, 1897. The poem as it was in the original consisted of thirteen verses, not eight, as published throughout the world during the last two years.

The occasion upon which the poem was written was the Emperor William's speech upon the divine right of kings and his own special mission upon earth. At that time A. M. R. Gordon, a Scotchman by birth, and whose real name was A. McGregor Rose, was a member of the Montreal Herald staff. He had been in the habit of writing verses upon different subjects, and was looked upon as a very bright fellow indeed. The city editor, turning to him, said:

"Give us a poem, Gordon, on the Emperor."

In less than an hour's time he turned out thirteen verses, which were entitled by him "Kaiser & Co.," not "Hoch der Kaiser." The matter was sent up to the printer just as it was written, and by some mistake the foreman of the composing room only picked up eight verses in type, leaving the other five verses on the galley. The paper went to press and Gordon, who was very particular about his matter being strictly correct, got one of the first copies off the press. He at once saw the mistake and the form was re-cast, not, however, before a few hundred had been sent into the mailing room for the foreign mails. Thus the fact that only eight verses were copied in the papers which printed the poem at the time. In the second edition it was given in full and signed A. M. R. Gordon.

A few months ago Gordon's mind commenced to fail, and he was finally taken by a few of his newspaper friends to Notre Dame Hospital. For weeks he lay as helpless as a child and unable to recognize any one. Finally he passed away and was buried by those who had enjoyed his society. After this, some inquiries were made as to who he was, and it was found that he came originally from Scotland, after having quarreled with his wife. He worked for a short time some twelve years ago on the NEW YORK HERALD, and afterward drifted all over the country, spending several years in San Francisco. He then went to Montreal and remained there until the time of his death.—The New York Herald.

SOUR SAINTS AND SWEET SINNERS.

By CARLOS MARTYN. This is a portrait of some unsaintly saints and some unsinful sinners, who are types to be found in all churches and congregations, by a prominent clergyman who writes from the inside with a pen borrowed from Dean Swift. Third Edition. Cloth, 12mo, with photograph and biographical sketch of the author, $1.00.

ONE THOUSAND WAYS TO MAKE MONEY.

By PAGE FOX. Every man, woman, boy and girl should read this book. It conveys information of use to everyone, and will enable those who read it to make an honest livelihood in dozens of unthought-of ways. Second Edition. Cloth, 12mo, $1.00.

SOME PEOPLE WE MEET.

By CHARLES F. RIDEAL. A series of brightly written character sketches or types, including THE SALESLADY, THE MAN "WOT" GOLFS, WON LUNG LEE, THE REV. HIRAM B. MONTGOMERY, JACKIE, BOB TOUGHUN, A CITY "GENT," MR. LEVI VINDERMENDERHEIMER, MR. TAMMANY TODD, MR. SEMPRONIOUS YARDLY, MR. DICK DRUMMERTON, MRS. WHIRLINGAY WHIZ. Miss Jessie A. Walker has provided us pictures exhibiting her usual clever talent. Cloth, 12mo, decorated cover, 25 cents.

FIGHTING AGAINST FATE.

By MOSES D. MORRIS. An exciting and true story, more dramatic than a drama. Those who like a blood-curdling, hair-raising narrative which has the advantage of being fact instead of fiction, are recommended to buy this book. A large advance sale is already assured. Cloth, 12mo, with one hundred striking illustrations, $1.00.

TWO MEN AND SOME WOMEN.

By WALTER MARION RAYMOND. Two contrasting characters are described in this novel in a graphic and interesting way, together with their mutual influence over one another, and over certain women with whom they are brought in contact. It is a realistic story. Cloth, 12mo, $1.00.
